

Talk Talk:

Using Last Caller Barring

This calling feature is the perfect way to stop nuisance callers. You can use it to block the last number to call you, or you can enter specific numbers you'd like to bar. Whenever someone tries to call you from a blocked number, they will hear a recorded message and you won't be disturbed with the call. You can block up to 100 different numbers using Last Caller Barring.

You may also want to check out About CallSafe our free feature where all your incoming calls are screened before your phone rings.

Facebook:

What is blocking and how do I block someone?

When you block someone they will no longer be able to do things such as tag you or see things you post on your timeline.

What exactly happens when I block someone?

When you block someone, they won't be able to:

- See things you post on your profile

- Tag you in posts, comments or photos
- Invite you to events or groups
- Start a conversation with you
- Add you as a friend

If you block someone you're friends with, we'll unfriend you as well. When you block someone, you also won't be able to do things like start a conversation with them or add them as a friend. Keep in mind that blocking someone may not prevent all communications or interactions (example: in apps or groups) and only affects your interactions with that person on Facebook.

To block someone in your blocking settings:
